KNIT NEWS

1. Charlene Shafer shared this extra tidbit with InterKnit since she could not cover it in her demonstration in October:

Faux weaving. Ask the members to choose a weaving pattern. Weave a few inches with yarns the same weight. Now switch to fairisle and reverse the yarns in the feeders and knit a few inches. The purl side should look the same. This is much faster than weaving and leaves a really nice design on the inside (knit side) of the piece. I like to make cardigans – jackets or vests this way.

I use this if I am able to use the same weight of yarns for both the knitting and the weaving. Of course, if you need the heavier yarn for the weaving – it most likely won't work with the fairisle technique.
2. Milissa Dewey just got a PASSAP pinkie and has a huge collection of circular sock machines. She will be joining us in December. As an introduction, she shared this link with us. This may be of interest to you:
 - a. Many beginner videos are on our Bobbin Boy Resources page, which is here: <http://www.chessspy.com/BOBBIN-BOY/BB-resources.htm>

3. Mary Ann Oger is back into socks too. Here is the link to one of her earlier sock posts but you can view her recent posts from the same page.
