

Open House!

Saturday, April 14th, 2007 11am till 2pm

InterKnit wishes to thank: All our friends from Knittin' To It as well as those from Techknitters. Many thanks to ALL our volunteers: R. Antonelli, E. Ambrecht, L. Bushby, M. A. Dolce, S. Guzman, P. Huang, D. McQueen, C. Metzger, A. Newman, C. O'Connell, C. Polfer, C. Scott, T. Simmons, R. Stewart, G. Wells, K. Westbrook, and V. Simpson for having the idea!

All members are asked to wear or bring something you've made, if you're not wearing it, label it with your name, machine type and materials. It's not too late to print out an announcement and share. And most importantly BRING A FRIEND!

What's up for May? L. Bushby announced at our March meeting that she's purchased the Knitters Edge Machine Knitters Website! She will walk us through the creations of Tricia Shafer and the many resources available from this site. www.knittersedge.com

Club Notes:

Three phone numbers are incorrect in your directory. See the secretary, or your email/snailmail newsletter for correct numbers.

Best of Luck and Safe travels to D. and A. Keen! A. Keen has been chosen with another dancer to play Juliet the bride in this show at The Lyric Opera House in Chicago this week. D. Keen was chosen as a market woman in this ballet," I think because of my vast shopping expertise! LOL!" She told this reporter: "This ballet travels around the world performing on a regular basis. We are very excited to experience all the Lyric and The American Ballet Theater have to offer".

