December 2006 Newsletter

Hear Ye, Hear Ye: Calling all Brown Bag Projects! Our club President Hendrix is surprising us with her Brown Bag project yarn in our December Gift Exchange and is putting a call to all members to bring in their Brown Bag Project items! Bags went out "never" to return?! This years Gift Exchange is a potluck, Scarves, wash clothes or dish clothes follow your muse it's more fun when you bring something! We meet on the second Saturday of each month at 10:00 a.m. at the College of DuPage, Room 1000-Berg Instructional Center, Glen Ellyn.

November Show & Tell Program! Brava Ladies! Along with many holiday scarves were a Christmas stocking, a knit baseball style sweater and a knit beaded necklace. There was a knit jacket with faux fur fabric some Fun Fur teddy bears as well as a marvelous memorial blanket! InterKnit is also pleased to announce that yet another member has made it to the ranks of published designer. Carol Mason has two patterns in One Skein Wonders by Durant, Storey Pub. Still looking for ideas for him? While checking out knitting books at the local book store I came across: Knitting With Balls: The First Contemporary Guide To Knitting for The Modern Male, this is a hand knitting book but that's never stopped us before! Many quick projects. Felted belts, cell and ipod covers, fingerless gloves etc. you may wish to check it out.

Mark your calendar! First quarter club plans are in: January will be Spinning. February has Knitweave / knitweave Intarsia slated to be demoed. March has Garment Assembly listed, hopefully to be followed in April with Jacquard.
